“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.”

Isaiah 26:3

I know that some of you may want to give up. In fact, it may feel like the only option you have. I know some of you may want to throw in the towel because everything is pointing to defeat. But before you do, I encourage you to ask yourself this... What if you are on the verge of healing? What if you are right on the edge of the greatest part of your story? Sometimes the enemy attacks the hardest when breakthrough is near. He will whisper lies like, “this isn’t going to work” or “you aren’t good enough”. All you hear is, “it’s time to just give up.” He’ll tell you it’s not worth it to try, that you won’t get anywhere. Yet, God might be nudging you into the next part of your story. The enemy is sneaky, but he’s also a liar. Literally, all he does is lie in order to ruin us and deter us from God’s truth. Because God’s truth says that you can do anything with him, even the impossible. And if you aren’t good enough, that’s okay... because He is. God’s truth is that He already made a plan for you, and He’ll equip you to complete it. He’ll fill the gaps of your weakness with His grace. Essentially, He’ll help you achieve what He created you to do. Don’t miss out on God’s goodness for you because you are listening to the one who wants to destroy you. Pick up the towel and keep going. God’s plans for you are good. His plan conquers. Don’t give up. Breakthrough might just be in the next step you take.

Bible Trivia

One of Jacob's sons. His name means "I will praise the Lord."

Answer found in:

Genesis 29:35

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," saith the Lord." Isaiah 55:8

Some days you'll find God's presence everywhere you look.
Other times you'll have to be still and find His presence in the quiet places. Never stop seeking Him.

God's plans will always be greater and more beautiful than all of your disappointments.

If Eve wasn't content in the Garden, what makes me think I will be content if only my circumstances were different? Contentment doesn't come from perfect circumstances but from fixing our eyes on Jesus and what's eternal, not on what's temporary.

No matter what trial we are facing, God always wins! There's nothing He hasn't defeated already! So as children of God, we cannot lose! If He is for you, who can be against you? He is so good, that even in the darkest scenario, we have shelter in knowing we can never be separated from His love. He's already paid the price for us to spend eternity with Him!

At midnight, while Paul and Silas were in prison, they began to sing and praise the Lord. Suddenly there was a great earthquake and the very foundations of the prison were shaken. The prison doors were opened and their bonds were loosed. Not only were Paul and Silas set free, but by morning the jailer and his family had received Jesus as their Savior. If we grumble about the problems that surround us, we only empower them to remain the same. The breakthrough comes when we praise God in the midst of our circumstances.

Acts 16:25-32

Laughter of the Month

A little silver-haired lady calls her neighbor and says, "Please come over here and help me. I have a difficult jigsaw puzzle, and I can't figure out how to get started." Her neighbor asks, "What is it supposed to be when it's finished?" The little silver haired lady says, "According to the picture on the box, it's a rooster." Her neighbor decides to go over and help with the puzzle. She lets him in and shows him where she has the puzzle spread all over the table. He studies it for a moment, then looks at the box, then turns to her and says, "First of all, no matter what we do, we're not going to be able to assemble these pieces into anything resembling a rooster." He takes her hand and says, "Secondly, I want you to relax. Let's have a nice cup of tea, and then," he said with a deep sigh.... "Let's put all the Corn Flakes back into the box."

Many will miss heaven by 18 inches, the distance from their head to their heart. They know ABOUT Christ, but do not KNOW Him. You can be religious but lost. You can have the Bible in your head, but not have Christ in your heart.
